

MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL

Judge Suspends Sentence in Sherman Case Until Motion is Disposed of.

When Asked For a Statement
Sherman Said He Had Nothing to Say.

Immediately after the verdict in the Sherman case at Hamilton, O., had been announced Wednesday afternoon, Attorneys Bickley and Bickley for the defense gave notice of a motion for a new trial. Judge Belden then suspended the sentence in the case until the motion could be disposed of.

Considerable comment was caused in this city by the announcement made exclusively in the Republican Wednesday evening, that Sherman had been found guilty of murder in the second degree. People here thought that it was the purest kind of a case of first degree murder, but Foreman Aaron Morris of the jury, in announcing the verdict, said that the jury had been unable to find any trace of premeditation in the crime.

Judge Belden delivered his charge to the jury shortly after the opening of court at 9 o'clock in the morning. The charge was quite lengthy, embraced 28 pages of manuscript and 15 different forms of verdict. It contained a careful review of the case from the standpoint of law, defined the degrees of crime, explained the charges in the indictment and gave to the jury instructions to be guarded by the law and the evidence, without fear, favor or prejudice. The charge was exceptionally clear and forcible and it is said to have been one of the best judicial expositions rendered from the bench in many a day. In charge of Sheriff Brannon the jury retired to its room at 5 minutes after ten o'clock and took the case under deliberation. The jury was out for five hours and ten minutes.

On its return at 3:15 p. m. the jurors were polled by the clerk of the court and the foreman announced the finding. The court room was crowded to its utmost. Sherman had been brought in and had taken his seat with his attorney and his brothers, Ed. and Wade Sherman, of this city. While the verdict was being read intense silence reigned throughout the room. Sherman heard the verdict impassively, not even showing the slightest concern. As Sherman arose to be escorted back to jail by the sheriff, a reporter asked him for a statement. He said: "I have nothing to say."

Many people in Rushville had expressed the belief that Sherman would not escape the electric chair.

It is not believed here that the Hamilton court will grant the motion for a new trial and it is considered lucky that Sherman escaped with his life.

BILL IS LIKELY TO GO THROUGH

The Voting Machine Measure
Compels Use of Machines in Every County.

There is strong probability that a voting machine bill, requiring general use of machines in every county, may become a law. The bill limits the cost of machines to $500. It is stated that while at the outset the cost is considerable, that the use of machines work a great saving by reducing the number of election boards, hours of service, etc. Besides it is claimed that it will reduce vote-buying to a minimum, as there is no possible way by which the seller can show that he has "delivered the goods."

FROZEN PIPES

Are an Everyday Problem Now.
—How to Thaw Them Out.

The most knotty problem which probably confronts the populace just at this time is that frozen water pipe problem. And in most cases the matter of thawing out a pipe is but a simple thing and requires practically no labor.

Where a hydrant is located out of doors and when it is frozen at the mouth or at any distance down the direct pipe, a few drops of coal oil poured on top of the hydrant has the desired result. In some cases from ten to fifteen minutes are required to thaw the ice, but it seldom fails.

WAS POISONED

F. Hughes Arrived Here From Greensburg in an Unconscious State.

F. Hughes, a collector for an Indianapolis house which sells goods on the installment plan, arrived in this city last evening on the Big Four from Greensburg in an unconscious condition. When he left Greensburg he purchased a ticket for this city but became sick on the train and lapsed into unconsciousness. He was taken to the Gilson house, where for two hours physicians worked with him and finally succeeded in reviving him. He remained very sick for some time, but is up and about today. The physicians state that he was poisoned by eating something of a poisonous nature.

IN THE HOUSE

The Fate of the Statehood Bill is in the Lower Body's Hands.

Washington, Feb. 9.—The statehood bill as it passed the senate did not reach the house yesterday as was expected. Nevertheless there has been lively work in that body on the part of the friends and opponents of the measure in its new form. When the bill is received it will be referred to the committee on territories. There is little doubt that this committee will ask for a conference. Should this occur the advocates of the measure in its present form will demand a vote on a motion to concur in all of the senate amendments. It is understood the Democrats of the house will support this measure and the claim is made tonight that at least twenty-seven Republicans have been secured to support it also. This would insure the concurrence and the remaining step in the statehood plan would simply be the signature of the president to make the bill a law. Should the bill be sent to conference the fight would again be reopened in the senate.

THE SITUATION

Lodz, Feb. 9.—The situation remains uncertain, and nothing definite will be known until Friday morning, when some of the largest manufacturers have decided, after paying off today, to open their mills and give the men a last chance to return to work. The masters say that if there is no response to the whistle on Friday, they will close their mills indefinitely.

More Time Given.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 9.—The court of appeals has extended from Feb. 10 to 18 its temporary writ of prohibition restraining the Fayette circuit court from taking jurisdiction of the Hargis murder cases from Breathitt county.

Preparations are being made by the several Masonic branches for the observance of their special anniversaries which occur in the near future.

A BLAZE AT STOCK FARM

Office, Cow Stable and Buggy
Shed Burns at Jersey Isle Stock Farm.

Fire Starts from an Overheated
Gas Stove—Cows Rescued
by Mrs. Walker.

The attention of the citizens of this city was attracted last night about nine thirty o'clock by a large light on the horizon toward the northeast and considerable telephoning was done to ascertain the cause.

It was learned that some of the buildings at the Jersey Isle stock farm were on fire, and those interested went at once to the farm, two miles distant from the city.

The fire started from an overheated gas stove in the office building and at the time of its discovery had gained such headway that the office was in flames. Mrs. A. P. Walker discovered the fire and with the help of the farm hands succeeded in getting out the four cows which were in the stable, and putting them in a place of safety.

The fire spread rapidly and soon enveloped the buggy shed and cow stable.

The cow stable is a small one and was recently added to the buggy shed to enlarge the accommodations at the farm. The cow stable, buggy shed and office are all located in one building, which is situated between the large three story barn and the Walker residence. Mr. Walker, one of the proprietors and managers of the place, was at Indianapolis attending the horse sale at the time of the fire. He returned home this evening.

The fire destroyed the entire building, three buggies, a buckboard and four sets of harness, all the office furniture, all the milk checks belonging to the dairy and all the firm's account books.

When asked as to the extent of the loss, Mrs. Walker stated that as Mr. Walker was away she could not say, but that it was covered by insurance. Neighbors living north of town estimate the loss at $1200.

THE DEADLOCKS

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 9.—There is no variation in the deadlock over the selection of a United States senator to succeed Senator Cockrell. The eighteenth ballot resulted as follows: Cockrell, seventy-two; Niedringhaus, sixty-six; Kerens, twelve; Pettjohn, two; Finkeburg, one.

Dover, Del.—The latest ballot for United States senator taken by the Delaware legislature in joint session showed no change in the deadlock.

Gorky Is Well.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 9.—The interrogation of Maxim Gorky by the public prosecutor has been begun in the court of justice, to which Gorky was driven in a carriage from the fortress of St. Peter and Paul. Gorky is well, and is subject to only the ordinary regulations, which require the wearing of a special garb to prevent escape.

May Be Frozen to Death.

Berrien Springs, Mich., Feb. 9.—Olive Templeton, eighteen years old, following her dismissal from chapel at the Adventist college in which she was a pupil, disappeared on Thursday and it is feared that she fled half clad into the woods to freeze to death. Miss Templeton's home is at Sawyer, Wis.

Excessive tea drinking has its evils the same as excess in any other drink. Part of the physical deterioration in the lower classes of Great Britain which is causing the thoughtful people of the nation so much concern is attributed by the medical fraternity to the prodigious quantities of over-steeped tea which the poorer people drink. In nearly every home in the meaner streets of London one may see the faithful old brown teapot standing on the hob, stewing, stewing away and that berried, strong and bitter with tannin, is drunk at intervals from sunrise to sundown. They say as bad, too, in Ireland and Scotland.

AGAINST COMPANIES

Supreme Court Holds That Expressmen Must "Deliver the Goods."

In affirming a judgment rendered against the United States Express company in favor of Thomas Gerhart of Kokomo, the Supreme court has held the act of 1901, requiring express companies in Indiana to deliver express packages in cities of 2500 or more inhabitants, to be constitutional. Even though the package is not addressed to the consignee's home, the express company is expected to deliver it to the man's residence or place of business. It was also held that whether they are incorporated or doing business as partners, persons conducting an express business are amenable to the law.

LOST HIS JOB

The Illinois Legislature Will Not Stand for a Member Who Tattles.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 9.—Representative Frank D. Comerford of Chicago has been expelled from membership in the lower house of the Forty-fourth general assembly of Illinois by a vote of 121 to 13 because he had made unjustified charges against certain members of the legislature.

The expulsion followed a hearing of several days, during which Comerford tried to adduce evidence to support aspersions cast at his fellow legislators during a speech in Chicago. He had asserted that certain men tried to buy votes for a minority Democratic leader at a caucus in January. The investigating committee found that these charges were not true. The defendant was allowed to plead his case before the whole house, but at the close of his address only thirteen members voted against his expulsion. When the roll was completed a member moved instant reconsideration. The motion was laid on the table. Speaker Shurtleff rose, took up his gavel and hesitated half a minute before speaking.

"Will the gentleman from Cook," said the speaker, "please retire from the floor of this house?"

"I will, Mr. Speaker," instantly responded Comerford, and he quietly walked out.

"The clerk is instructed to strike the name of Frank D. Comerford from the rolls of the house," announced the speaker, and the final formality of expulsion was over.

Comerford says he will try to have certain men indicted according to charges made by him and for which he was expelled.

HERE AND THERE.

Wabash, Ind., Feb. 9.—Verda Beck and Orpha Musselman, daughters of neighboring farmers in this county, while driving in a top buggy in the vicinity of Athens, were struck by a passenger train on the Chicago and Erie line, and when the engineer stopped at Athens he found Verda Beck clinging to the signal staff of the engine, while the unconscious body of her friend lay at her feet. Miss Beck was but slightly injured. Instinctively she clung to the staff and was saved from falling off. Orpha Musselman's skull was fractured and her condition is hopeless.

Bellboys Sentenced.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 9.—John Morgan and Carl Wilson, Pasadena bellboys who robbed Mrs. William Edey of New York, a guest of the Maryland hotel, of $20,000 worth of jewels, pleaded guilty in the superior court to burglary and were sentenced to three years each in prison. The jewels were recovered.

A bill has been introduced in the legislature allowing the various Masonic bodies of Indianapolis to consolidate for the purpose of erecting a Masonic temple in that city for the use of the Masonic lodges.

ELECTION IS NOW A FACT

Congress in Joint Session
Canvassed the Electoral Vote of the State.

Result Admitted on the Evening of Nov. 8 Last Was Found to be Correct.

Washington, Feb. 9.—Although the result of the presidential election was known early in the evening of Nov. 8, it was not until yesterday afternoon, when the senate and house met in joint session that Theodore Roosevelt and Charles W. Fairbanks were officially declared to be elected president and vice president respectively for four years beginning March 4, 1905. This quadrennial function of congress attracted to the house chamber, where the electoral vote was canvassed, an immense gathering, prominent among the auditors being Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Alice Roosevelt, the president's sister, Mrs. Cowles, and Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks, wife of the vice president-elect. President Pro Tem Frye of the senate presided and delivered the announcement of the result of the count, which showed that Roosevelt and Fairbanks received 336 electoral votes and Parker and Davis 140. The whole proceeding consumed exactly fifty minutes, thereby establishing a new record in counting the electoral vote. Preceding and following the joint proceedings the question of freight rate regulation held full sway in the house. As on the previous days of the debate, both Republicans and Democrats claimed the credit for originating the present legislation.

The senate received from Mr. Kearns a disclaimer of the vote in favor of separate statehood for New Mexico, which the records of Tuesday credited him with. He said that he had been misunderstood by the clerks and that he had voted against the provision. Several senators corroborated his statement, but a number asserted that they had understood him to vote for the amendment.

ARE PUNISHED

Denver, Feb. 9.—City Detective Wm. H. Green pleaded guilty in the criminal court to the charge of "stuffing" a ballot-box at the election of Nov. 8, 1904. It was alleged that Green, with others, cast 587 fraudulent ballots in the precinct commonly known as "Green county." Green was sentenced to jail for ninety days. Edward Sweeney pleaded guilty to conspiracy to make a false count as a judge at the late election, and was sentenced to ninety days in jail.

ARRESTED SPITTERS

New York, Feb. 9.—Following the joint complaint of many theatrical managers to the health department concerning the increase in the habit of spitting in and about the lobbies and corridors of the theaters and on the sidewalks of upper Broadway, twenty-five policemen were detailed last night to devote their sole attention to the arrest of spitters in buildings and on the sidewalks. A dozen prisoners were arrested, for the most part well-dressed men, among whom were several well-known persons. Most of the prisoners were released on bail in the station house.

It was quietly rumored today that the temperance forces will not be satisfied with the Moore bill now that they feel they have a majority in both branches, but that they will try to obtain the enactment of a law that would not permit a saloon within 200 feet of a church, library or schoolhouse. Chairman Morton of the public morals committee is said to be harboring a bill with these provisions and will spring it as soon as the Moore bill is passed. If his bill should become a law it would drive hundreds of saloons out of business that could not be reached by remonstrance. It would also close up the bar at the Columbia club, the swell Republican organization of Indiana. The anti-saloonists are not very hopeful of defeating the Moore bill, but they have already set about organizing for the last stand.

THE EFFECT.

That the Repeal of the Sunday Base Ball Bill Would Have.

One of the arguments against the bill permitting the playing of professional baseball on Sunday is that, if Sunday baseball is permitted, Sunday theaters could not consistently be kept closed. The Sunday baseball bill, now pending in the Legislature, repeals the statute against Sunday baseball. Attorney-General Miller says the repeal of the baseball law would in no way effect the status of the Sunday theater question. "There is a specific statute forbidding the playing of baseball for money on Sunday," said Mr. Miller, "but no specific statute prohibiting Sunday theaters. This is covered by the general Sunday law which would be no wise affected by the repeal of the specific statute dealing with Sunday baseball. One has absolutely nothing to do with the other."

It is pointed out that even should the Sunday baseball bill pass and become a law, Sunday baseball could be prevented under the general statute just as Sunday theater performances are prevented under that law over the State.

HOW TO BEAT A GAS COMPANY

Take off Your Meter and Hide
it Under the Bed as Did Anderson Citizens.

The Citizens' Gas company, of Anderson, has discovered a wholesale theft of its gas. People disconnect the meters and set them aside or allow gas to pass through pipes which did not touch the meter. It is estimated that during the month of January five million cubic feet of gas were lost in this way. The discovery was made at a boarding house, where the meter was stowed away under a bed. One hundred families who were using gas unlawfully, were cut off.

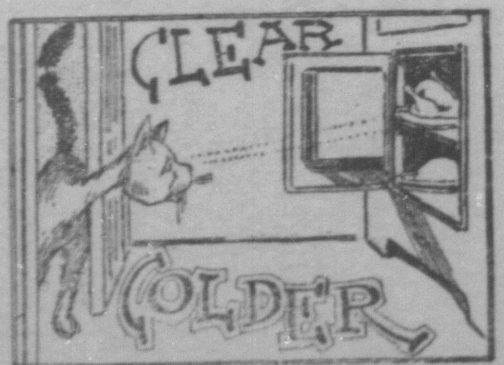

IS COMPLETE

San Domingo, Feb. 9.—The task of revising and amending the constitution of Jan. 20 between the United States and Santo Domingo under which the United States is to undertake the financial administration of Santo Domingo until the claims of certain foreign powers are adjusted and satisfied, has been completed. The convention will not take effect until it shall have been ratified by the American senate and the Dominican congress.

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY

A well known Rush county farmer says that he rides his farm of rats in the following manner: "On a number of pieces of shingles I put a teaspoonful of molasses; on that a small quantity of concentrated lye, and then put the old shingles around under the cribs. The next morning I found some forty dead rats and the rest left for parts unknown. I have learned of several farmers that have been rid of the pests in the same way and never knew to fail."

Charges Mentioned in Resolution Related to Alleged Offenses of Senator Warren.

SENATOR FRANCIS E. WARREN.

the United States, and by President Roosevelt. The resolution was promptly tabled by a vote of 18 to 5. Senator Patrick Sullivan was the only Republican who voted against tabling the resolution.

The charges mentioned in the resolution follow: That Charles M. Smith, brother-in-law of Senator Warren, was kept on the senate pay-roll at Washington as a clerk of the committee on claims (Senator Warren chairman) at a salary of $2,200 a year, while in fact he never served in such capacity in Washington, but stayed in Cheyenne all the time, turning his salary over to Senator Warren.

That Hiram Sapp similarly collected $1,440 from the government as assistant clerk and turned the money over to the senator while he remained in Cheyenne.

That F. E. Warren, son of the senator, is drawing pay as an assistant clerk of the committee on claims, although being absent from Washington and a student at Harvard university.

That Senator Warren leased a building to the government to be used as a postoffice, while a United States senator.

That Senator Warren has, in violation of the federal statutes, fenced in a vast area of government land.

That Senator Warren used his influence to secure from the federal government a contract for lighting Fort D. A. Russell at Cheyenne for the Cheyenne Light, Fuel and Power company, of which he is a stockholder.
